

MODULE
Title : Cultural biodiversity
Unit 1 – Title: History through vineyards and farms: evidences of the past in the present day
Date: January 2013
OBJECTIVES: Learning how to use information about the present day to become aware of the historical modifications of a territory
CONTENT	Acquisition of a general knowledge of the history of the Tuscan Maremma in the last century. Planning the contents to be acquired through interviews to the elders.
LANGUAGE	Keywords and expressions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Transformations of the territory</li> <li>● Draining and reclamation</li> <li>● Administration of the waters</li> <li>● Electrification</li> <li>● Parcelization (land reform)</li> <li>● Social mobilization (peasant movement)</li> </ul>
STUDYING SKILL AND STRATEGY	Extracting information (LS) Elaborating a questionnaire (L1 e LS) Field survey (L1) Class discussion and group work (LS) Reworking acquired information (LS)
Activity 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Teacher provides students with photocopied material to be read to get the guidelines on which to plan the field survey.</li> <li>b. Teacher helps students extract the essential concepts from the material provided. (LS)</li> </ul>
Activity 2: Planning the field survey to interview the elders
Activity 3: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Processing collected data, videorecordings and/or photos.</li> <li>● Presentations in English. Structure the discussion of results in a clear and essential language that can be easily understood.</li> <li>● The finished product for each group will be integrated into a single presentation</li> </ul> Collected data prepare students for the guided tour to the State Archive of Grosseto (Unit 2 to be developed during school year 2012-2013)
WORKING AT HOME	Learning new words, building up vocabulary using a dictionary. Extracting other information from different sources (e.g. internet).